

ABSTRACT

Titis Sari Metsun, NIM 4915127077. Socio-economic conditions of persons with Disability Member organization of Indonesian Blind Union (PERTUNI) in Pasar Rebo, East Jakarta. Bachelor theses. Jakarta: majoring in Social Studies Education Faculty of Social Sciences University of Jakarta, 2016.

This research aims to: (1) find out Eastern Jakarta DPC PERTUNI role against its members regarding vision and mission, (2) know the socio-economic conditions of persons with disability member organization PERTUNI DPC East Jakarta who serves as the head of the family. The focus of this research include; Socio-economic conditions of persons with Disability Member organization Union of Blind Indonesia (PERTUNI) in Pasar Rebo, East Jakarta. This study used a qualitative approach to techniques of sampling in the form of purposive sampling. Data source derived from primary data and secondary data. Engineering data collection done by observation, interviewing, documentation, and library studies. The methods used in the analysis of the data is the reduction of the data, the presentation of data, up to the withdrawal of the conclusion or verification of data. This research was conducted for three months from March until may 2016.

The results of this research indicate: (1) the role of the PERTUNI against its members is to provide advocacy especially regarding defence rights and the enactment of the prevention of an invitation won't – militate in favour of people who are blind (2) socio-economic conditions measured using five indicators, level of education, health, employment, income and wealth ownership (facilities). For educational level belongs in price, indifferent or belongs in health care not homogenized, work on one type of work, incomes are included in the category, and the ownership of wealth (facilities) only on goods that have a value to high.

Key words: socio-economic Conditions, the Union of the blind Indonesia (PERTUNI), the disabled, the blind Disability