

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, the writer would like to extend her utmost gratitude to Allah SWT for the abundance of blessings and mercy that He has bestowed upon the writer thereupon the writer could complete the skripsi as the partial fulfillment of the requirement to obtain her bachelor degree. In addition, the writer would like to express her thankfulness for the following people who have significantly contributed to supporting, asissting, as well as encouraging the writer in completing this final project.

1. Ma'am Eva Leiliyanti, Ph.D. as the first advisory lecturer of the writer. Ma'am Eva Leiliyanti has deeply contributed to enhancing the writer's understanding about the issue that the writer selected. In addition, Ma'am Eva has given the writer plenty of useful feedbacks so that the writer could evaluate the lack in her thesis. Furthermore, Ma'am Eva always supports and encourages the writer to actively conduct research about the topic that the writer selected such as the theories and supporting information related to the issue. She always encourages her students to unlock their potentials and enhance their thinking skills.
2. Ma'am Eka Nurcahyani, M.Hum. as the writer's second advisory lecturer for her insightful feedbacks and motivation that make the writer realize the importance of being more careful and paying attention on the analysis that the writer made.

3. My dearest mother and grandmother as the two most influential figures that the writer has always counted on when the writer encounters difficulty. Their motivations and constant support have made the writer more optimistic and courageous in overcoming her obstacles and doubts.
4. The Honourable lecturers of English Literature Department for their dedication in improving our knowledge and capability in the field of English Language and Literature.
5. Ritsnaini Zulfaisyah and Dara Nabila as the writer's best friends at 15 Sastra A. Their encouragement and motivations are truly precious.
6. Dinda, Maya, Linoti, Bella, Risa and all my amazing friends at 15 Sastra A for the joy, laughter, and moments we have cherished for the past 4 years.
7. Sabilla, Kartika, and Dhia as the writer's skripsi partners for being extremely supportive and tremendously helpful in assisting the writer complete her skripsi.
8. Hasibe Kara as one of my most valuable Turkish friends who is always willing to listen to my stories and encourages me when time gets rough. She is the person that I have always looked up to. Her encouragement and prudence have boosted my optimism as well as confidence whenever I doubt my capability and encounter difficulties. She also made me realize that I am capable of completing my skripsi and working at the same time.

9. My other Turkish friends such as Merve, Zuleyha Abla, Yasemin, Kevser, Zisan, and Yaren who have also been supportive and compassionate.
10. My greatest brother and friend, Yaron Huberts, the one that kept encouraging me when I encountered difficulties in conducting my thesis, and the one that kept assuring me that I was capable of completing the project despite the works that I had to undertake at RRI.
11. The writer's colleagues at Voice of Indonesia, Radio Republik Indonesia such as Ibu Yati, Ibu Nitha, Ibu Anna, Pak Rahmana, Pak Pane, Pak Faishal, and Kak Putri, who have been genuinely helpful, encouraging, and cooperative in supporting the writer so that the writer could manage both her works and studies.
12. Thank you for those who have helped me realize this final project. I apologize that I could not mention all your names.

Yours Faithfully,

Amanda Larasati