

LEMBAR PERSEMBAHAN

Dear self. I want to thank you. You walked on so many difficult journeys these past few years. You fought battles – with those who loved you, with those whom you loved. You were let down time and time again, but you didn't let it shatter your faith in relationships, in love. You had to prove your worth to those unworthy, and you were broken – more than words can explain. But you have been reborn. You found your true self and you changed your meaning of life – turning it into something beautiful, into something worth living. So, I want to say that I'm proud of you. I know how hard it has been and I cannot thank you enough for taking care of me. I promise that I will continue to take care of you too. Just keep being strong. For me. Keep on going. Keep on fighting. You know you can do this.
