ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study is to provide informations about the implementation of Secretary of Chief's Training Program that has been carried out by the General Finance's Learning Center (Pusdiklat Keuangan Umum). This program evaluation study used the Context, Input, Process, and Product (CIPP) evaluation model with an evaluative approach. The data collection techniques were conducted through interviews, documentations, observations, and questionnaire. Training organizers, instructors and alumni of the 2018 Secretary of Chief's Training Program were tested as the subjects of this study. The data validation test included tests of internal validity, external validity, reliability, and objectivity. The results showed that the implementation of Chief's Training had run well according to the aspects evaluated. 1) On the aspect of context evaluation corresponded to the criteria evaluated. 2) On the aspect of input evaluation, the training provider has carried out responsibilities in accordance with their duties and functions. The training curriculum was convenient for the participants' needs but still had to be adjusted to the needs in the field. Facilities and infrastructure were well provided. 3) On the process aspect, the implementation of the training was in accordance with the instructions. 4) On the product aspect, the learning center has organized the training well. It appears that there is an increase of knowledge and skills of the participants after attending the secretary of chief's training programs.
