53	Mar 28	After last nights recording session as some of us were getting ready to head home and others to another hotel we walked across the street to check out a show at the Oakland Metro for about an hour and when we came out the vehicle we been traveling in was broken into. Some asshole stole all our laptops, hard drives, cameras, iPad, and luggage. Who steals dirty underwear?!? We did what any normal person would do and hid everything from eye site, the windows were tinted, and there was a security guard in the parking lot when we went inside. Surprisingly they left the guitars which we are using today to track the remainder of the album. We find it odd that our vehicle was the only one singled out and this happened in an open parking lot with people around with quite a bit of stuff stolen. If you or someone you know was at the Emmure Volumes show last night in Oakland and hear or know of anything please get in contact. Doing our best to finish the remainder of the album with what wasn't taken. GROUND ZERO #cursed	✓		Capitalization Symbol

It's been a long complicated process, but everything is now recorded and in the process of being mixed. We are currently working out the final details and will be determining a release date soon. We'd like to thank all contributors to our indiegogo crowd fund campaign. With your help and support we've been able to put together a record that we're all extremely proud of. You should expect your perk packages to arrive shortly before the release date which is soon to be determined. Thank you to all of our fans and followers for your patience and support over the process of making this album.
