

ABSTRACT

JULFIKAR SETIADI. Knowledge of Traditional Games At Junior High School Students (Middle School First Survey on State 234 Jakarta). Essay. Jakarta: Recreation Sports Studies Program, Faculty of Sport Science, State University of Jakarta, in January 2016.

This study aims to determine students' knowledge of traditional games Junior High School 234, Cakung, East Jakarta. This study was conducted on August 2015 through January 2016 at Junior High School 234 in Jakarta. The method used in this research is survey method with the testing techniques, the students answered questions about knowledge of traditional games in Indonesia.

On the dimension of sense knowledge of traditional games with indicators of traditional games, know the names of traditional games and determine the classification of the traditional game. Research data in can generate that as much as 68.56% have had knowledge of the traditional game. Results of research on the dimensions of the traditional knowledge of the game it can be concluded that students SMPN 234 Jakarta already know the traditional game

. On the dimension of supplies and the Rules of traditional indicators of how to make traditional games and traditional game rules. The data was generated at these dimensions as much as 69.1% have been aware of equipment and rules of traditional games and 72.5% of students have learned the benefits of playing traditional games. Results of research on these dimensions can be concluded that the SMP N 234 Jakarta students already know about the equipment and the traditional game rules and benefits of the traditional game.