This study aims to determine the image of body image in adolescent boys in SMA Negeri DKI Jakarta. This research uses quantitative descriptive method. The subjects of this study were male students in SMA Negeri DKI Jakarta with 20% samples from total sub-districts in each region and then taken 20% from the number of schools in each sub-district then 15% from the number of classes in each school so that the sample of 2-3 classes per school in each region or as many as 304 respondents, with multistages random sampling technique. The data were collected using a research instrument that refers to aspects of body image based on Thompson's theory, which has been tested for validity and reliability and produces 48 valid statements and 12 point statements that drop from the overall 60 items of statement. While the reliability of 0.905 which means high. Data analysis of research results using descriptive technique percentage. Based on data analysis, it can be concluded that some respondents are in the medium category with a percentage of 66.11%. This shows that body image in adolescent in SMA Negeri DKI Jakarta good enough. When viewed per aspect, the highest percentage is in the cognitive aspect. Meanwhile, if viewed per class body image level in adolescent boys in class XII has the highest percentage.

Keywords: Body Image, Adolescents boys