All praises be to Allah S.W.T, the most gracious and most merciful, who has always given us blessings and guidance in life. The writer expresses her gratitude to Him because without His blessings and guidance, this skripsi would be impossible to do. Shalawat and salam to our Prophet Muhammad SAW (peace be upon him), his family, companions, and followers for guiding us to the right path of life.

In this acknowledgement, the writer would also like to express her gratitude to the precious people that believe in her during the time of writing this skripsi. Her skripsi advisor, Helena Damongilala, M.Pd and second skripsi advisor, Dr. Sri Sumarni, M.Pd. The writer thanks both of those amazing advisors for dedicating a lot of their time in giving valuable lesson, priceless patience, advice, feedbacks, suggestions, and encouragement just for the sake of this skripsi to be well-composed.

The writer also thanks both of her beloved parents. Thank you for always pushing her beyond boundaries, making sure to always get up when she is back down, building her to be an independent individual, making her see things from a lot of sides, and forcing her to always think critically. Without the writer's dad, she will never have a drive to live her dreams and be inspired. Also, without the writer's mom, she will never understand the meaning of life and the hard work one should put in order to combat hardships. Thanks also to the writer's older sister, Chitra Rizkya Permatasari, has also played a huge role in her life. She has taught the writer that respect is earned by showing the best of ourselves and people's words won't matter as long as we work hard.

To GINCUERZ, Mayang, Nhabella, Fadhilah, Chintya, and Dian. Thank you for all the laugh, blood, tears, sweat, hate, love, spirit, motivational words, trips, and other things for the past 4 years. Without all of you, the writer's 4 years in college would be nothing but sadness. No words in dictionary could ever describe the writer's feeling in meeting all of you.

Massive thank you also goes to OMDO PEOPLE, Qori, Kiki, Cici, Biah, Fani, Vina, and Dede. Since 2013, the writer has always been amazed by how supportive this group is. The writer would never forget the time this group have always been dedicated to encourage each other to accomplish their dreams. Thanks also for the mental support during the writing of this skripsi.

To the skripsi mates, Afrida and Fryda. Thank you for always encouraging each other when there was a doubt that all of our theses would not complete in time and for always be the #1 listeners when the writer had problems with her skripsi.

Last but not least, 15DA. Thank you for always making weird cheesy jokes on literally anything that made the writer laugh every single time. Even with our playful ways in studying, there was always seriousness within.
