

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, the writer would like to express his gratitude to the Almighty God because of the abundant love and blessings He has bestowed upon, the writer is finally able to finish this undergraduate thesis. He has blessed the writer's daily life with good health, ideas and healthy mind. The writer would also give special thanks to:

1. The writer's amazing parents for giving endless mental and material support throughout the writing process. Thank you for the encouragement and hopeful prayers since the very beginning. You are the biggest motivation for the writer to strive; thank you for always trusting him and not losing a single hope.
2. Mrs. Eka Nurcahyani as the writer's advisor. You have been really patient, supportive and caring in guiding the writer to conduct his research until he makes it this far. Thank you for encouraging the writer to break through his limit, ensuring him to have the thesis defence before he departs to Taiwan for summer programme. The writer owes you a great debt.
3. All the lecturers – Ibu Ellita, Ibu Rahayu, Ibu Hasnini, Ibu Aisah, Ibu Ati, Ibu Diyan, Ibu Eva, Ibu Listya and Ibu Nurbaity, for kindly teaching and giving the writer new insight and knowledge regarding English Literature. Thank you for shaping the writer's analytical and critical thinking. Big credit also goes to Mrs. Atikah Ruslianti – the study programme coordinator, for her support to the writer's academic achievement.
4. Sylvan Rachelwina and Saida Parawati, whom the writer met in college yet turned out to be his best friends. Despite the fact that one of them has left college earlier, they remain loyal, understanding, supportive, loving and caring to the writer. Thank you for accepting him the way he is and being there when he needs you the most.

5. Dimas Budi Wicaksono as one of the writer's best friends and personal witness to the writer's development. Thank you for being all ears to the writer's rants, complaints and problems and being the most available person to reach out to. The writer is grateful for meeting you, knowing you, and having you in many aspects of his life. Keep growing, developing and blooming into a great being, and remain having a beautiful soul.
6. Leona Pratiwi Purastusi and Puteri Anjani Faisal, whom the writer has befriended for nearly 9 years. Thank you for your great accompaniment and companionship along the journey, for sticking out with the writer through the hard and good times. The writer always and will always be rooting for you.
7. Nuryani Meilan Ambarwati as the writer's best friend from senior high school. Thank you for remaining supportive throughout the writing process; the writer appreciates sharing sessions through a bunch of voice and video calls due to the separating distance of Jakarta-Yogyakarta.
8. My Amik family – Puti, Risa and Ucup, for once giving a comforting feeling called as “home.” Especially for Puti Hafsa Sati, whom the writer can always look up to. Thank you for all the advices and sharing sessions about academic, professional and personal life, and being part of the writer's affirmative supporting network.

9. Ravica and Gabriella Christina, whom the writer proudly considers as his “baby gurl.” Thank you for remaining in touch and being present in many important occurrences despite the end of BEM management. Seeing you develop into empowered being warms my heart.
10. Ma’am Eka Squad – Dinda, Anga, Ola and Kamil for sharing laughter and lament during the advisory session. The writer is going to miss seeing your eye bags in the morning due to being awake all night writing the thesis.
11. All the students of 15 SB for being a good friend in passing through the four-year journey of college life. The writer is going to miss all the moments in the classroom. Good luck on your future endeavour!
12. Lastly, Muhammad Firhat – the writer himself, for making it this far by enduring all the hardships, distress and anxiety resulting from writing this undergraduate thesis. Thank you for continuously striving until the end and believing in oneself despite of the life drama encountered during the writing process. Thank you for putting your mental health first by being brave enough to reach out for professional help when you feel the burden exceeds your limit. The writer would say sorry for ever questioning his self-worth, and he would like to say to himself, “You made it, and no words can explain how proud I am of you.”

With abundant love,

Firhat
