

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

All thanks and praises are for my Almighty God, Jesus Christ, my Savior, my Best Friend that never fails me even for once, He is the one who gives me strength to pass all of this endurance and challenges. “He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak” (Isaiah 40:29). When when life feels hard and words can not describe the bitterness of the suffering, all the tears have talked much to him. One think I know for sure: just a prayer away. Thank you Lord Jesus.

I thank my family, especially my parents for the unlimited support and prayers for me. For the quality time they spent with me, letting me know that God is all I need. They really supported me physically, mentally, and spiritually. In the hard time of my life they always besides me. My mom who always give the bible quotes to motivate me to do this skripsi, and my Daddy who always give advise for me to be more dilligent in doing this skripsi. Also, my brother Raymond, thank for your help, thank you for printing this paper and printing the other paper. You are the best old-brother ever.

I also deliver my gratitude to my skripsi advisor, Dr. H. Muchlas Suseno, M.Pd. who teaches me to think. I really appreciate the way you tell me about this skripsi, how you can relate your knowledge to simple things in life. It is interesting to know that complicated things can be seen as a simpler thing if we want to understand it. The permission to let me go sidang this semester although you know this would not be the very best of me is one thing that I will always remember from you.

To the Head of English Language Education Study Program, Dr. Hanip Pujiati, I would like to say thank you for the guidance. Also, to my methodology advisor, Siti Wachidah, Ph.D. thank you for the guidance too. And, to all lecturers in English Department, I can never thank you enough for teaching and shaping my mind.

To all English Language Education Study Program staffs, especially mas Fajri and mba Sony, thank you for being good friends to talk about the
