Ahmad Maulana, The Effect of Cooperative Learning Model Talking Stick on History Subjects to Student Motivation in SMA Negeri 1 Setu Kabupaten Bekasi, Thesis, Jakarta: History Study Program, Faculty of Social Sciences, Jakarta State University, 2017

This study aims to obtain empirical data about the influence of cooperative learning model talking stick on the subjects of history on student learning motivation. This research was conducted in SMA Negeri 1 Setu from November 2016 until July 2017. The research approach used is quantitative approach with experimental method. The target population in this study is the entire class in SMA Negeri 1 Setu Bekasi regency amounted to 1175 students, while the inaccessible population is the student class XI IPS, amounting to 139 students. The sampling technique using simple random sampling. The sample was taken from the affordable population so that the two classes are obtained XI IPS 1 as experimental class and class XI IPS 3 as control class. The instrument used in this research is 50 questionnaires. Through validity test with the formula "r" product moment result showed 38 grains of valid statement and 12 items of statement not used, while reliability test with Alpha Cronbach formula obtained reliability value equal to 0,931 thus instrument can be used.

Test requirements analysis through normality test and homogeneity test. Normality test using Lilliefors test, in experimental class obtained  $L_{hitung} 0,0411 < L_{tabel} 0,1306$ , hence distribution of normal distribution data and at control class obtained  $L_{hitung} 0,0947 < L_{tabel} 0,1306$ , hence distribution of normal distribution data. Homogeneity test using Fisher test and obtained  $F_{hitung} 1,164 < F_{tabel} 1,64$  then homogeneous variance is accepted. Hypothesis testing using t test produces  $t_{hitung} 3,27 > t_{tabel} 1,661$  at a significant level of 95% (0.05) then  $H_0$  is rejected and  $H_1$  accepted. It can be concluded that there is influence of cooperative learning model talking stick on history subject to student learning motivation in SMAN 1 Setu of Bekasi Regency.
