

ABSTRACT

NUR DJULAIQHA, Competency Improvement Teachers Professional Social Studies (Case Study social studies teachers at the Cengkareng District West Jakarta), bachelor theses : Education Study Program Social Science (IPS), the Faculty of Social Sciences University of Jakarta, 2012.

This research aims to : (1) know social studies teachers professional competencies after following the MGMP Cengkareng District Social Studies West Jakarta and (2) knows the role of the social studies teachers in improving the professional competence social studies teachers in the sub-district Cengkareng West Jakarta.

This research uses qualitative approach with a purpose sampling techniques sampling. The data source is derived from the primary and secondary data. The technique of data collection will be done by observation, interview, documentation, and study of the library. The method used in the data analysis is the presentation of data reduction data, until the withdrawal of the conclusion or verify data. This research done during the six months from November 2015 until May 2016.

The results of the study showed (1) MGMP Cengkareng District Social Studies West Jakarta is the container subject teachers Integrated Social Studies in improving professional competencies teachers Social Studies, (2) in implementing the MGMP Activities Cengkareng District Social Studies West Jakarta has a role as reformator with developing teaching materials through other sources and learning media IT based, mediator with socialize the curriculum and the learning curriculum 2013, supporting agency to develop teaching methods and kolaborator invite resource persons and make the activity share practices centering between friends agonising.

Conclusion this research shows that the role of the social studies teachers at the Cengkareng District West Jakarta is sufficient to improve professional competence social studies teachers even though not fully run it.

Key Words: Increased Consultation Subject Teachers (MGMP), Professional Competence, MG MP Social Studies Sub-districts Cengkareng West Jakarta