

THE ATTITUDE OF EDUCATION STAFF TOWARD DISABILITIES'
STUDENTS THAT PROVIDES BY INCLUSIVE SCHOOL IN EAST
JAKARTA

(2016)

MIA ANESTA

ABTRACT

This research is conducted to analyze about the attitude of education staff toward disabilities' students that provides in an inclusive school in East Jakarta generally. The methods that writer used for this research is survey methods. The population in this research is the education staff in seven public schools that provide an inclusive education in West Jakarta with total are 30 respondents. The sample technique to this research is using a multistage technique. In this technique, the researchers took samples of sub districts and random schools, then take a purposive sample of education staff, based on a certain consideration which made by the writer. Collecting data using questionnaires and the data were analyzed in a descriptive method. These results indicate that the education staff attitude toward disabilities' students in an inclusive school in East Jakarta was good.

Keywords: attitude, disabilities' student, inclusive education.