

SPEAKING ABILITY EARLY CHILDHOOD 5-6 YEARS
(LITERATURE REVIEW)

Winda Nur Emiria

1615128626

ABSTRACT

The ability to speak in children is very important. The ability to speak has developmental stages in accordance with the development of the child's age. Talking can be seen from the aspect of education, medical and psychological aspects. Each aspect is that the link between aspects with other aspects. Children who have problems in language development can affect activities, both within the community and in school learning activities.

This study aims to determine the relationship speak in aspects of education, health, psychology and language development of children aged 5-6 years.

The results of this study indicate that there is a correlation speak as seen from the aspect of education, health, and psychological aspects.

Keywords: speech, early childhood