

COLLEGE STUDENT'S OPINION ABOUT VIOLENCE IN DATING RELATIONSHIP

(Survey at Guidance and Counseling Students Force 2013-2016
State University of Jakarta)
(2017)

Rahman Rudyansyah

ABSTRACT

The purpose of research are to know the college student's opinion of guidance and counseling about Violence in Dating Relationship, this research uses descriptive method. The population and sample are 309 college students. The instrument used in this research consisted of 42 items referring to the theory in the form of Jill Murray Guttman scale. Validity of instruments calculated with the formula Point Biserial using Microsoft Excel 2010. Questionnaire reliability coefficient was 0.907. The results of research shows that the students opinion of guidance and counseling State University of Jakarta about the factors violence in dating relationship that factor substance abuse on alcoholic drinks and drugs are a factor of the cause of the violence in going out with the acquisition of the percentage of 24,20 % of respondents 309 guidance and counseling students State University of Jakarta force 2013 to 2016. The results can be used for the candidates counselor as the focus of action preventif against the substance abuse on alcoholic drinks and drugs that can cause of violence in the dating relationship.

Keywords: Violence in Dating Relationship, College Student