

ABSTRACT

Rizha Octaviani, FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT YOUNG FAMILIES IN MARRIAGE case studies Pandansari village, in Tonjong, Brebes district, the Central Java. Jakarta: Social Science of Education State University of Jakarta, 2016.

The research aims to obtain data on financial management young families in marriage in the village of Pandansari, in Tonjong, Brebes district, the Central Java. To get an idea of financial condition young families in marriage in the village pandansari, Writer used a qualitative approach to collect data deeper by digging to informants Research. The data use some techniques data collection done by interviews, observation, an analysis of documents and field notes. The study is done for three months of february the may 2016.

Based on field findings there are various the causes of married young and financial stability in young marriage and financial management young families in marriage in the village pandansari. In a household financial condition that occurs is the crisis and not crisis in the family Money. Writers get three conclusions , the first factor behind young marriage. Second, there are financial condition family the crisis caused by behavior consumption. Third, financial management performed by couples a less well because the absence of the family budget.

Keyword : young married, Financial condition of family, financial management