3	"GET UP. Those were the first words I ever heard. Open my eyes, see a girl, black and blue all over, dried blood along her thighs. Red brown stains smeared across the hairless juncture	V		V

5	"Ray kisses my forehead or my knees or the insides of my thighs, but his mother made him kiss her good night every night and so he told me he'd protect me and never kiss me"	V		V

12	"It is good for women to look like little girls now, to have no hair between their legs	V					V
13	"The girl knew she wasn't supposed to go anywhere with strangers, but the man had on a blue shirt like everyone who worked at the aquarium"	V					V
14	"I think you might be over 100	V					V

	pounds. That's not acceptable
15	"Every Sunday we go to Freedom Church. Ray believes in God, and in looking at all the little girls in their Sunday best, ribbons and bows and tiny socks with lace on them	V				V
16	"I am 15 and stretched out, no more than 100 pounds. I can never weigh more than that. It	V				V keeps my breasts tiny my hips narrow, my thighs the size Ray likes 17 "Ray doesn't wan me getting pimples or my period, and so he makes me take a pill for both every day. The one for pimples dries out my skin, and makes the sun blotch me angry red. The one to prevent my period does just that, and although the				V ads on TV say it just makes your period less painful, I never get mine"

18	"THERE WAS ANOTHER ALICE BEFORE me. Ray let her go when she turned 15. Ray met the Alice before me when he was nineteen and she was eight	V				V
19	"Pretty," "They were pretty." "I wish we could have them all," he	V				V

	says
20	"New underpants bought at the big store where we buy toilet paper and the cleaner I use to mop the floor, white only, no lace, no trim, smaller than mine. Smaller than mine, Ray noticed, and no dinner for me that night	V				V
21	"Two days later, when my face was still swollen hot, he came home with a lock of my mother's hair. He wouldn't tell me how	V			V he got it, even when I cried and crawled onto his lap to beg the way he likes best. He just said, "I decide everything. Remember that.""

22	"when all the lights are out except for the fairy princess night light he's plugged into my bedroom wall, waving her magic wand to spread pink light into the room."	V				V
23	"I strangle out my plan in broken words as Ray puts ice on my throat and rubs my ribs and carries me to the sofa, careful tender as he opens my clothes and marks me all over."	V		V
24	"We'll be able to go somewhere nice," he	V					V

	says. "Maybe someplace with a pool. I'll watch Annabel swim. A little blue suit with yellow trim for her, and you'll dry her off with a towel, then wrap her up and bring her to me."
25	"Ray and I go every Saturday morning. Ray stares at little girls and I stare at the food"	V				V
26	"The day I got too tall to wear the white dress with short, puffy sleeves and little tucks along the chest, he filled the kitchen sink with water and shoved my head into it. I was thirteen then, and when I tried to stay down after he'd held me there, lungs burning, inside of my head going dark, he	V				V hauled me out and slapped me so hard the right side of my face grew a hand-shaped bruise, jaw to forehead. I couldn't go outside for a week."

27	"I make up outfits, frilly little dresses with sashes and tiny white socks folded into delicate shoes. That was how he dressed me for years, until the dresses strained open across my hips and chest, until my arms came out strangled red from the binding sleeves."	V				V
28	"I wish all little girls could be like that," Ray said. "Stay like they are forever. Never grow	V				V

	up into what they all become
29	"MORNING AGAIN, ALWAYS MORNING again, always another day, and I see my breakfast yogurt still sitting on the table. Last night yogurt is there too. Ray always feeds me yogurt to keep me tiny, to keep him happy"	V				V
30	"Oh little girl who are you?" he said. "What's	V			V

	your name? He spoke sweetly
31	"Before they went outside, before they even left the penguins (who were still just standing there, doing nothing, like they were watching them), he gave her a baseball cap. "Everyone got one," he said. "Yours is the only one left, though, so it's too big. Better tuck your hair up under it.	V			V

	Maybe that way it'll stay on 32	"Because I would hate to take time off work to drive all the way to 623 Daisy Lane and wait for everyone to come home and take care of things. I'd hate for them to come home and find me there, waiting for them," he says. "I'd hate for your parents to die because of you	V			V
