

The Classification of Figurative Language

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatatement	Irony
1. Thinking Out Loud	When your legs don't work like they used to before		√	√											The words they refers to her legs as the whole of the woman herself. Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language this line contains personification in this words your legs don't work like they used to before because Sheeran describes the words your legs don't work as if the legs cannot work as a human activity in office or somewhere. In this context Sheeran wants to emphasize her through the part of body do not work again as usual but his love still the same even his lover cannot be doing anything.. The words

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														your legs don't work doesn't mean her legs as literally but the words your legs don't work means she cannot do activities or going to places. The writer uses metaphor. It seems in word 'like' between your legs don't work and compared with words they used to before. Sheeran puts your legs don't work means she cannot do activities or going to anywhere, while your legs don't work refers to her ability cannot use as usual. In this context Sheeran defines about his lover who cannot do anything

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														and he tries to help her but he cannot do it and he make sure whether his lover still feel his love or not.
	Will your mouth still remember the taste of my love?			√										The words your mouth refers to her lover's lip while my love refers to the writer's feeling. The writer uses personification in this line your mouth still remember the taste of my love because the writer explain that he has special feeling about her. Sheeran describes the words your mouth remember the taste of my love as if her mouth can remember his love feeling like human memory. He defines about he has special feeling about her and hopes that she will remember him trough kisses.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	Will your eyes still smile from your cheeks?			√										The words your eyes refers to his lover's point of view to the writer. This line your eyes still smile from your cheeks contains personification because the writer implies this words about his lover looks very happy when she will see him. The writer hopes that his lover always happy when she meet him.
	And darling I will be loving you 'til we're 70										√			The word you refers to his lover. Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, this sentence contains hyperbole because the writer uses exaggerate words in this line I will be loving you 'til we're 70 to emphasize his love feeling will everlasting. In this line means that the writer promises that his love will be the same

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														until they grow old. He states that his love will last until they are 70 years old, age will not make his love disappear.
	And baby my heart could still fall as hard at 23										√			This word baby refers to his lover while my heart refers to the writer's feeling. Based on Perrine's theory, this sentence my heart could still fall as hard at 23 about his love feeling still the same always be the same like before. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in this bold line above contains hyperbole. The implied meaning is about Sheeran still has strong feeling for

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
														loving his lover when he is getting old as he loves her at 23.
	Maybe just the touch of a hand										√			The word maybe refers to his thoughts about the way people falling in love based on previous lyric (how people fall in love in mysterious ways) The line the touch of a hand to emphasize about the treat for loving someone through touching hands. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in this bold line above contains hyperbole. The

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														implied meaning is about Sheeran thinks the way people falling in love with someone can use the touch of a hand through a good treat.
	Take me into your loving arms		√											See the word me refers to Sheeran himself, there is comparison way of these words are not directly expressed but it is implied meaning, while the implied meaning in this line your loving arms means he asks her to hug him very tight. This line loving arms contains metaphor. the words loving arms emphasizes his desires about love

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														feeling from his lover that can make him feel comfort beside his lover. In the context that the line implies his feeling use his lover's arms to compare a hug that always Sheeran feels the love by his lover.
	Kiss me under the light of a thousand stars										√			The word me refers to the writer. Sheeran exaggerates this line kiss me under the light of a thousand stars to emphasize his romantic feeling when he kissing her in the night. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in this bold line above contains

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														hyperbole. The implied meaning is about Sheeran wants to kiss her every night that make him feels romantic and it is beautiful moment when he shows his deep feeling to her.
	Place your head on my beating heart		√											The words ' your head ' refers to his lover so that she can hear his big feeling. This line my beating heart contains metaphor because he wants to show her about the writer's feeling and how much he loves her. The words ' place your head ' emphasize he wants to his lover heard the heartbeat because he loves her very much. In the context that Sheeran wants to show his deep feeling for his lover and she should know that he has strong love feeling and always thinking about her.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	I'm thinking out loud										√			The words I refers to the writer. Sheeran exaggerates this line thinking out loud to emphasize his thoughts always remember his lover. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in this bold line above contains hyperbole. The implied meaning is about Sheeran loves her very much so that in his mind always remember her every day and he feels found the love right with her.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	When my hair's all but gone and my memory fades			√										The implied meaning from this line my hair's all but gone contains personification because the writer wants to emphasize the implied meaning of that words. The words my hair's all but gone as if Sheeran's hair can go somewhere like human action. Sheeran defines about his lover still love him even he is getting old and his memory had started to frequently forget and lost all of the writer's memories.
	And the crowds don't remember my name							√						This words my name refers to the writer itself . This line has implied meaning, in this words the crowds contains symbol because he wants to symbolize the

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
														crowds with the sound or people around him. This line means that the writer thinks about his sadness and he still loves his lover so much even the people around him do not know anymore when he is getting older.
	When my hands don't play the strings the same way					√								The words my hands refers to his ability or skill. In this line the strings contains synecdoche because Sheeran defines the whole meaning about he can play the guitar as instrument to entertain his lover. He states that when he is getting older, he cannot use his ability to play guitar for his lover but he believes that her feeling still

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														the same.
	'Cause honey your soul could never grow old , it's evergreen			√							√			This line your soul could never grow old contains personification because the writer gives an imagination about her lover's appearance. Sheeran describes your soul as if her appearance cannot be grow old. He states that his lover feeling still love him until he is getting older and Sheeran feels the soul of his lover will always be young. The word it refers to her appearance who always looks young, based on previous lyric your soul could never grow old . This word evergreen contains hyperbole because Sheeran exaggerates this line it's

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														evergreen to emphasize the figure of his lover always ageless. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in this bold words above contain hyperbole. Sheeran states that through his sights his lover's soul never grows old, he wants to her figure always young to be loved.
	And baby your smile's forever in my mind and memory										√			Sheeran exaggerates this line forever to emphasize the words 'your smile'. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in this bold words above contains hyperbole. The implied meaning is about Sheeran wants his lover's beauty face and her smiles always

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
														imprinted on the writer's mind, it can be a memory that makes she always look young in his eyes.
2. Photograph	Loving can hurt, loving can hurt sometimes			√										This words loving can hurt contains personification because Sheeran describes love as if an abstract object that able to hurt something like human ability. Sheeran states that sometimes he feels hurt by love and it is forms of sense of love for his special person.
	We keep this love in a photograph						√							The word we refers to the writer and his specialperson. The words keep this love in a photograph contains metonymy because defines the object related with their feeling. Sheeran implies his feeling save

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														in memorable thing to show their love. He states that they will always remember their love through a photograph where they make their love memories into the precious thing to feel the love alive forever.
	Where our eyes are never closing										√			The implied meaning in this line our eyes are never closing to emphasize their old memories never forgotten. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in this bold words above contain hyperbole. In this context, their eyes are not actually always open every time. He defines about the old memories that he sees and feels together with special person as the precious things in his life because those photographs capture beautiful memories for him, as if his eyes are never closing. In the real life, eyes will be close when we blink or when we sleep. It means he hopes his feeling will always love each other forever.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
	And time's forever frozen , still										√			The word still refers to their time still like used to before. Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, The words time's forever frozen to emphasize he hopes the time will not have elapsed. According to Perrine's theory of figurative language, in

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
														this bold words above contain hyperbole. In this context, time's forever frozen does not mean that time really can freeze like ice in the refrigerator or at the North Pole. Sheeran implies that he didn't wants to miss the beautiful moment with his special person when he feels the time is same like before, then he uses overstatement words that he hopes the time does not pass.
	So you can keep me inside the pocket of your ripped jeans		√											The word you refers to his lover. Based on Perrine's theory, this line you can keep me inside the pocket of your ripped jeans contains metaphor because Sheeran asks her to keep

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														his photo in her wallet that inside her pocket and even their love can be felt wherever they went to. The words ' you can keep me ' emphasize about Sheeran's photo that keep in the pocket. In this context that Sheeran as a photo in her wallet and he hopes that she always remembers him whenever she is.
	Holding me close until our eyes meet			√										The word me refers to the writer itself. This line our eyes meet contains personification because it is not literally means that their eyes can meet together. This line means his love feeling wants to she always remember him whenever she is until they are meet again and

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
														never let her alone. while the implied meaning of this line every piece of you means the whole about his lover. In this context that Sheeran always remember every part of her is memorable and he easy to remember the memories about his lover and he cannot move on because of her.
	Loving can heal, loving can mend your soul			√										The words your soul refers to his lover's heart feeling. This line loving can heal means when the writer loving someone special that he thought love able to being special people's feeling. Sheeran describes the word ' loving ' as if it can

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														heal or mend like human ability. The words 'your soul' implied the figure of his lover. He defines about loving each other can heal any psychological wounds and he will not forget about his someone special the most.
	I swear it will get easier, remember that with every piece of you		√											The word I refers to the writer itself while it refers to the writer thinks or feels about love based on previous lyric loving can heal, loving can mend your soul. This line every piece of you contains metaphor because the writer always remember every part of her is memorable or memories about his someone special and he cannot move on because of her.

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
	That's okay baby, only words bleed			√										The words that's okay means to cooling down for the heart feeling of her lover, while the word baby refers to his lover. This line words bleed contains personification because Sheeran describes 'words' as a consequence as if the words able to do something until hurt him. In this context lyric that Sheeran defines he does not mind his special person hurting him because he can stand for the pain because of love that just words.
	Inside these pages you just hold me							√						The word you refers to his lover while the words you just hold me refers to his lover when she hugs so tight. This

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														line pages contains symbol because that it is not literally meaning as the pages that are on the books generally but Sheeran portrays the word pages that is the moment or memory when they were together. He defines that he has great memory with his someone special that never forgotten even they hurts him by her negative statement and Sheeran still loves them and he does not want to lose his someone special.
3. Bloodstream	I've been spinning out for time										√			The word I refers to the writer. This line contains hyperbole because

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														spinning out means the writer confused about what is in his mind regarding his sad love. The writer uses more exaggerate words for the readers or listeners.
	I got sinnin' on my mind		√											This word I refers to the writer itself. This line sinnin' on my mind contains metaphor. that the implied meaning of this line sinnin' on my mind means the writer reflecting the sins what he had done. The word sinnin' on my mind emphasizes about negative way what he thinks when he sitting next to couple women and then like there is sin in his mind.
	Ripping out the											√		The emplied meaning in this line ripping out the

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
	pages													pages contains hyperbole because it is not defined as literal meaning of the words itself while it means the writer overstatement about his sad memories and he can't forget the bad memories.
	Color crimson in my eyes							√						The words my eyes refers to his point of view. Based on Perrine's theory, the words Color crimson contains symbol because the writer symbolizes color crimson as his emotions. It is does not mean there's red color in his eyes. He defines his angry or emotion that he cannot control because he feels disappointed with that women because women because she will leave him alone when he falling in love with her.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	Wanted to could free my mind			√										The words free in my mind in this line means that he wanted to forget all of the sadness, the rage and the loneliness that makes his mind filled with the uneasiness that is going on in his life. The subject of this line refers to color crimson (previous line ) which is an unliving things (adjective). The writer makes the color crimson doesn not action to free his mind. Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, the words contains personification because it is a human thing doing an action as if it is life.
	I feel the chemicals burn in my bloodstream		√											The words I refers to the writer itself. The words the chemicals burn contains metaphor. The implied meaning of

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														this line the chemicals burn means the effect of alcohol drink when he says "sipping on red wine". In this context, the chemicals burn Sheeran defines about he feels hot in his body because of the red wine to free his mind.
	Thought I'd find her in a bottle		√											The word her refers to his lover while the word I refers to the writer himself. This line bottle in this line means the alcoholic drink that he always drinks when he thinks about his lover. As a whole I'd find her in a bottle contains metaphor it means the writer wants to get the present his lover when he is in a drunk state. When people drunk of alcohol they unconsciously doing

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														something out of their mind.
	I saw scars upon her, Broken hearted dove			√				√						The word I refers to the writer itself while the word her refers to his lover. This line I saw scars upon her contains personification because it things that cannot be seen with our eyes. These words mean the writer do something wrong that hurts his lover feelings. These words broken hearted dove contains symbol because his lover as innocent women that has been hurt by him or the writer.
	Tell me when it kicks in			√										The word me refers to the writer while it refers to alcohol that inside his body based on previous line ( the chemicals burn in my bloodstream ). The words kicks in means that the alcohol gives the reaction to his body. Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, this line contains personification because "it" which refers to alcohol, unliving things has done an action "kicks in".

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
4. Sing	Glass on the side I've been sat with you							√						Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, the sentence contains symbol in the word glass because it means alcohol because the writer has been waiting beside her with consume the alcohol.
	Take another step into the no-man's land		√											This word another refers to someone else who he didn't expect while the word land does not literally mean that there is a place where some people can stay. The implied meaning of the words no-man's land is her lover is prohibited to get into relationship with another man. This line contains metaphor in order to the readers or listeners more impressive.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	I need you darling, come on set the tone		√											Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, this words set the tone contain metaphor because the implied meaning of this line set the tone . This line context compares set the tone with words ' I need you darling '. Sheeran needs his special women to boost his mood through enjoy the music and dancing together in order to he can getting closer to her heart feeling.
	Feel it rushing					√								The word it refers to what the writer do on th

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
	through you from your head to toe													previous line ( so maybe we could get down now ), while you refers to her lover. Based on Perrine's theory of figurative, this line contains synecdoche because the writer describe the part of her whole body. The words head to toe means the writer feels the sensation around her body when he feels enjoying the music and dance together. The writer wants to imply what he done with her uses his passion.
	This love is a blaze		√											The word love refers to the writer's feeling. Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, this line contains metaphor because the word love is a blaze represents Sheeran's feeling that the love is really strong and he compares that his love is like fire that is not easily extinguished because he knows his love so deeply. Sheeran uses metaphor in this line to highlight his strong feeling in order to more impressive rather than saying the real meaning.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	I saw flames from the side of the stage		√											The word I refers to the writer itself while based on Perrine's theory of figurative language this line contains metaphor because it does not mean what it says. The word flames from the side of the stage means feels desire of love with her because something special moment between the writer and his lover. In this context, Sheeran uses metaphor because he wants to express strong feeling or his desire of love when they are in the same place and found a strong feeling of love between them.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	Just from this one small act of kindness , I'm in deep		√											The word I refers to the writer itself. The words this one small act of kindness contains metaphor because this words does not mean that her kindness like a little thing but it means that she treats the writer is well. Sheeran implied his comfort feeling through I'm in deep because of previous lyric one small act of kindness that does not mean that her kindness like a little thing but it means that she treats the writer is well for Sheeran. He compares one small act of kindness with his woman as a keep that he knows. Sheeran states that he feels good because of her great treats for him until he feels like inside her feeling.

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
5. Runaway	Oh it could take a bit of time to heal this			√										Based on Perrine's theory this line time to heal this contains personification because it is not mean time able to heal the problem, but it means that the writer hopes one day his problem will be fine again. The writer uses personification in order to more meaningful rather that saying the real meaning.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	Thumb on side of the roadway							√							This line has implied meaning in thumb on side of the roadway that contains symbol because the writer uses this words to symbolized that he is asking for a ride on side of the roadway. This line the writer looking for a ride on the road side to leave his home.
	But I love him from the skin to my bones										√				The word I refers to the writer itself while him refers to his father. This line contains hyperbole in line the skin to my bone which is means the writer completely love his father and to Express his feeling to his father. He states that he love so much with her father but he have to leaving his home for another reason
	Cold as stone in the	√													This line has implied meaning in cold as

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	kitchen light													stone, it contains simile because the writer wants to describe about his confused feeling. The writer puts cold as stone to show the situation when he saw his father crying and this is part of the saddest feeling.
	But I was raised to keep quiet.		√											The word I refers to the writer itself. This line raised to keep quiet contains metaphor because this line the writers not to really give argue. In this line actually he is raised not to be a whiner in order to save his feeling. The writer uses metaphor to highlight about value of his feelings.
	My dad wasn't down with that plan to attack intends to									√				The implied meaning in this line the writer talks about his dad disagree with him to left his house. Based on Perrine's theory, this line

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	show love														plan to attack intends to show love contains paradox because in this line that is not like human action in negative way which is means that his dad prohibit what Sheeran is going to do or to love disagree but his father wants to show the kindness treatment to him.
	None of us are saints										√				In this bold line contains hyperbole. The word 'us' refers to the writer and his mother. According to Leech and Short (2007) that this line 'none of us are saints' Sheeran exaggerates this words 'none of us are saints' that he and his father realize about they are full of sins. The implied meaning from those words that he is aware that they are just a human being.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
	Put my home in a suitcase										√			The words my home refers to his precious things. This line put my home in a suitcase contains hyperbole because it is unbelievable thing if he puts his home in suitcase. The writer just uses overstatement in this sentence. Behind the lyric it means he brings his precious things belonging in his suitcase.
6. One	And would you take away my hopes and dreams										√			The word you refers to his lover. This words you take away my hopes and dreams contains hyperbole because the writer uses exaggerate words in order to make the readers or listerners more impresssed. He talks about his whole hopes able to accept with her lover. In the context,

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														Sheeran hopes that she accepts his whole life future in order to life together with his lover.
	All my senses come to life										√			The word my senses refers to his emotions. This line contains hyperbole because it impossible thing if his senses like human activity. This phrase means his emotions begin to feel what has been perceived again.
	While I'm stumbling home as drunk as I have ever been			√										The word I refers to the writer itself. This line stumbling home contains personification to explain when he walks to home in drunk condition. The sentence means that he always drunk when he get to home in hangover condition.
	Cause you are the										√			The word you refers to his lover. This line

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	only one													contains hyperbole because the writer uses overstatement to show he is really love her. The implied meaning from this line you are the only one means that the writer wants to show she is a special person because he wants to she is to be his mine and he loves her so much.
	Another place to let their hearts collide			√										Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language their hearts collide contains personification because the writer emphasize about his the other's feeling in mess condition. In this phrase the writer wants to show impressive words to reader.
	Take my hand and my heart and soul										√			The implied meaning from this line take my hand and my heart and soul about he hopes that she is willing to accept

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
														him fully. The writer uses metaphor to emphasize the meaning about he is ready to sacrifice himself for his best friend. The writer uses metaphor in this to make meaningful for reader or listener.
	You could stay within these walls or leave							√						The word you refers to his best friend. The implied behind this line walls contains symbol because the writer inserts walls which does not mean what it says. It means the problems. The writer wants to imply this word to describe the problem what she facing of.
	I listen to sad songs , singing about love		√											Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, this line sad songs contains metaphor because the writer emphasizes his

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
														sad feeling. he compares the implied meaning through 'sad' and 'song' that represent his disappointed feeling because of love. He compares sad song with 'singing about love' that represent his sad feeling. Sheeran defines about he is in drunk condition and listen to sad song to forget his hurt feeling because of love.
7. Tenerife Sea	We are surrounded by all of these lights		√											Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language (2012), the bold word 'lights' above contains metaphor. It is not literally meaning there is a light that surrounded by electricity, sun or fire

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
														to be seen. Sheeran portrays 'lights' emphasize about his gladness or happiness in this lyric. He compares 'lights' with 'we are surrounded' that represent his happy feeling. Sheeran states that he feels happy when he looked at his lover full of amazed feeling and he falling in love with her.
	Cause all that you are is all that I'll ever need										√			The word you contains her lover. Meanwhile, this line you are is all that I'll ever need contains hyperbole because the writer uses exaggeration by saying that he is actually need her for his love feeling and he won't she is leaving for him. Sheeran states that his feeling really loved his lover so much and he expects his lover being someone who needed in his life.

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement		Irony
	You look so beautiful in this light							√						Based on Perrine's theory of figurative language, this line light contains symbol because the writer inserts this word which does not literally mean. It means what he feels amazed when he is staring at her. The writer describes his feeling through happiness with light as a symbol.
	Your silhouette over me							√						The word me refers to the writer itself. This line silhouette contains symbol because the writer uses this line to describe his memory or imagination of her. The implied meaning of this line the writer wants to reveal his lover through silhouette like a shadow.

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
	The way it brings out the blue in your eyes							√						The word it refers to silhouette based on previous line ( your silhouette over me ). The implied meaning of this line is in the blue , it means calm or peace situation to be seen through her eyes. This line contains symbol because the writer wants to describe comfort or calm situation visible from her eyes.
	And all of the voices surrounding us here			√										The word us refers to the writer and his lover. This line all of the voices surrounding us contains personification because the writer wants to give imagination about people's reaction around them. It means they just feel in crowded place or situation when they are both.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
	They just fade out when you take a breath										√			The word they refers to the voices based on previous line (all of the voices surrounding us here), while us refers to the writer and his lover. This line they just fade out when you take a breath contains hyperbole because the writer uses overstatement to describe quite situation. The implied meaning from this line the writer wants to emphasize this situation in peaceful condition.
	Just say the word and I will disappear into the wilderness										√			The word I refers to the writer itself. The implied from this line I will disappear into the wilderness contains hyperbole because the writer uses exaggeration words to explain his desires for romantic treats toward her. The

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
														writer wants to present the other side of him only just words from his lover.
8. I'm A Mess	Searching for a sweet surrender		√											The implied meaning of this line sweet surrender contains metaphor because the writer wants to highlight about his bad feeling about love. It means the writer tries to find a good way that will always be remembered for ending his anxiety.
	And though I've known it for the longest time										√			The word it refers to sweet surrender based on previous lyric (searching for a sweet surrender ). This words the longest time contains hyperbole because the writer uses overstatement to emphasize he is already really thinking about his decisions. It means the writer gives imagination for the reader/listener

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement		Irony
														that he is really knows for a long time.
	But you're my road walking me home							√						This word you refers to his lover and I refers to the writer itself. This line road contains symbol because the writer wants to symbolized his choice toward his lover for his life. The writer wants to his lover gives the rest of her life to his life.
	See the flames inside my eyes							√						The words my eyes refers to the writer's point of view. The implied meaning of this line the flames inside my eyes contains metaphor because it is does not literally mean that there is flames or fire burns in his eyes. It means his sexuality or desire. The writer wants to imply that he has desires when he staring at her and wants to having sex with her.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	It burns so bright I wanna feel your love										√			The word It refers to the flames based on previous line (See the flames inside my eyes) and I refers to the writer itself. This line I wanna feel your love contains hyperbole because exaggerates the word I wanna feel your love . It is does not mean the writer feels the love like a food. The writer wants to be loved with feels his lover's feeling through the writer's point of view.
	Easy baby maybe I'm a light							√						This word baby refers to his lover and I refers to the writer it self. The implied meaning in this line light contains symbol because It is does not as literally mean that there is light comes from sun, lamp, fire, etc but it is symbolizes his happiness. The writer describes his happiness when he feels close with her.

Song		Figurative Language											Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement		Irony
	And put your faith in my stomach										√			The implied meaning in this line put your faith in my stomach contains hyperbole because the writer gives overstatement her beliefs into his feeling. The writer wants to emphasize that he hopes her beliefs can get into his feeling that may be can make him hungry.
	Drinking to suppress devotion with fingers intertwined							√						The implied meaning of this line fingers intertwined contains symbol because the writer wants to symbolized his feeling. While the bold word fingers intertwined means it is not literally meaning that his hands clenched tightly. Related to Leech and Short (2007) that Sheeran symboliezed fingers intertwined as committed being a couple. Sheeran states that he drinks alcohol to restrain his feeling so he does not feel alone.

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Undersatement	Irony
	I can't shake this feeling now										√			The word I refers to the writer itself. This line shake this feeling contains hyperbole because the writer gives overstatement about his strong feeling. The writer wants to imply that he cannot doing anything use his feeling because he has a problem.
	Although all the lies spoke										√			This line the lies spoke contains hyperbole because the writer overstatement what he speaks to her is a lie. It shows that the writer

Song		Figurative Language												Meaning & Interpretation
Titles	Words	Simile	Metaphor	Personification	Apostrophe	Synecdoche	Metonymy	Symbol	Allegory	Paradox	Hyperbole	Understatement	Irony
														speaks with her about his feeling and all of what he says just a lie.

Table 1. figurative language's classification

Notes :

Sm = Simile                      Sym = Symbol
Mt = Metaphor                  All = Allegory
Pf = Personification          Par = Paradox
Ap = Apostrophe                Hy = Hyperbole
Syn = Synecdoche              Und = Understatement
My = Metonymy                 Ir = Irony

Note : 1 – 12 : Kinds of figurative language; metaphor, simile, personification, hyperbole, understatement, paradox, metonymy, symbol, apostrophe, snecdoche, irony, and allegory.