

CHAPTER III

METHODOLOGY

3.1 Research Method

This study is designed and conducted as a descriptive interpretative analytical study taking the data from The Host novel. The theory used is postmodern feminism by Judith Butler to see the representation of feminine leadership towards postmodern feminism.

3.2 Data and Source of Data

The data that is used on the study are the words, phrases, clauses, and sentences indicating feminine leadership on the novel. The source of data is taken from The Host novel by Stephenie Meyer.

3.3 Data Collecting Procedure

1. Read the The Host novel
2. Highlighting the dialogues of The Woman Seeker character
3. Identifying the words, phrases, clauses, and sentences of The Host novel that indicate feminine leadership to be analyzed.
4. Identifying the words, phrases, clauses, and sentences of The Host novel that indicate postmodern feminism.

3.4 Data Analysis Procedure

1. Analyzing the words, phrases, clauses, and sentences that indicate feminine leadership in The Host novel using postmodern feminism by Judith Butler
2. Interpreting the words, phrases, clauses, and sentences that indicate feminine leadership using postmodern feminism in The Host novel
3. Concluding the data.