In nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti,

All praises and thanks to God, the Lord, the Creator of Heaven and earth, along with His only Son, Jesus Christ, in the unity with the Holy Spirit. The One who gives me this precious life, health, and grace so that I could have a taste of learning a small part of His greatest knowledge, until I pass my long journey in English Department, State University of Jakarta, and finish this thesis. In this opportunity, I would like to express my gratitude towards the following people who keep me spirited in passing through all these complicated yet memorable moments.

My thesis advisor, Mrs. Dr. Sri Sumarni, M.Pd for all the kind guidance, time and willingness to me in finishing my skripsi.

My Father and Mother, two persons but one I love the most, wherever you are, in purgatory or heaven already, for God's sake I will repay what you two have done to me. Hopefully you two may leave with your tranquil hearts. All things must pass, but my love will not.

My beloved family for all the love, hard work, supports, and never ending prayers up till now so that I can stay strong and feel blessed no matter how difficult the things are.

My brother during all hardships, Fakhri Aziz Humaidi, for sacrificing your precious time and place to help me in finishing this skripsi, for supporting me from the early times of this semester, and for all your prayers.

And also the head of English instructors of Pusdikpengmilum TNI-AD, Mrs. Ine Erlina who had helped me to collect the data I need to finish this skripsi.

Friends of mine in “Papuy” group for all sweet yet miserable memories. Hard to leave you all, but as the words of wisdom say, “all things must pass.” I love you all.

Members of 11 DIK A class for the love, memories, and support in my times of trouble. Especially my partners and brothers in many times of troubles, Andi Riyanto, Aslama Kaffah, Candra Summa Lesmana, and Mochamad Fachri Maulana for uncountable memories and support.

My “customer servicewoman” Mega Nurhayati, for all guidance, inputs, and all supports in completing this skripsi and presenting my thesis exam.

My brothers and sisters, all members of KMK Sacra Familia UNJ for sweet memories and unforgettable experiences, for introducing me to a real campus life, and for being a devout Catholic without losing my sense of humor.

All lecturers and staffs of English Department

Finally, to all people that I could not mention one by one, for all the supports and prayers, thank you very much. May the Lord bestow His graces and favors upon you.
