

ABSTRACT

Hadyan Bimo Yustio. 2017. Characterization Analysis of Class 3rd-E's Teacher in Ansatsu Kyoushitsu Anime (Sociology Literature Approach). Mini Thesis, Department of Japanese Language Education, Faculty of Languages and Arts, State University of Jakarta.

Ansatsu Kyoushitsu (eng : Assassination Classroom), a Japanese anime adapted from the same title manga comic written by Yuusei Matsui. This Anime tells about Koro-Sensei, an octopus look-liked monster who working as homeroom teacher in 3rd-E class of Kunugigaoka Junior High School. Japanese government gave assassination mission to his students because Koro-Sensei was planning to destroy earth, so his existence is too dangerous for earth being. The research's purpose is to describe characters of 3-E classroom teacher (Koro-Sensei, Tadaomi Karasuma, and Irina Jelavich) in Ansatsu Kyoushitsu anime and also good characters as teacher from them.

The research has two conclusions. First is about character of 3-E classroom teachers. Koro-Sensei is kind, bravely, clever, high-curiosity, pervert, easy-panic, sly, noisy, and greedy. Tadaomi Karasuma is skilled, strict, frigid, pessimistic, irascable, and dreadful. Then, Irina Jelavich is multi-talented, never give up, well-liked, snob, sensitive, vain, spoiled, and coquettish. Furthermore, based on the good teacher criterions, there are two similar characters between them, easy lessons and teaching with all their might.

Keywords : Anime, Characterization, Assassination Classroom, Teacher's Character, Modern Japanese Literature