

THE OVERVIEW OF PSYCHOLOGICAL WELL-BEING IN INFERTILE WIVES

(2015)

Ishlahi Nasiya

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study was to find an overview of psychological well-being among wives who experienced infertility and to determine what factors are affecting the psychological well-being among wives who experienced infertility. This study use qualitative method with case studies study type by interviewing tw wives as subjects who didn't have children yet and have infertility diagnosed by a doctor. The result of this study showed that the infertile wives have a good psychological well-being. Factors that influence the psychological well-being infertile wives are demographic factors, social support, self-evaluation mechanisms, personality variables, religiosity, and any other factors such as social status and education, conflicts with neighbors, and husbands fidelity.

Keyword: Psychological Well-being, Infertility, Wife