

ABSTRACT

YuyunRatnasariSuparwi. Curriculum Management in the Integrated Secondary School Islamic Foundation Darul Hikmah University Bekasi (2011). Thesis. Jakarta Faculty of Education, State University of Jakarta. January 2012.

The purpose of this study was to determine the Curriculum Management Learning in Secondary School Education Foundation ISAM boarding Darul Hikmah Bekasi. This study focuses on Planning, Implementation or Execution, Supervision and Curriculum Constraints and management strategies in SMPIT boarding Yapidh Bekasi.

The research was conducted in Bekasi Yapidh SMPIT boarding in mid December 2011 until January 2012. The method used in this study is qualitative research methods with descriptive analytic approach.

The data was collected using interview guides, and study the document. Key informants in this study is the head of school, while additional information is deputy head of the school curriculum, teacher I, teacher II, head of boarding / boarding schools and teachers.

From the results of this study provide a general description how to run a boarding curriculum management in planning, execution / implementation, supervision and also obtained information constraints and strategies that occur therein. Activities include planning, requirements analysis, formulating the Vision, Mission, goals and school competence, analysis of content standards, preparation of the annual program planning and implementation of learning, the burden of learning and educational calendar. Implementation of activities / implementation include, learning activities, extracurricular activities and assessment. Activity monitoring / control include, monitoring, supervision and evaluation program.

The implications of this research is the need for better cooperation between all levels of education with a foundation under it, so there is not one line that feels more menuasai school policies. Besides curriculum management activities must also be given priority on revamping dalamd the boarding line, especially in the expected improvement remains a superior power to pull parents can send their children to secondary school Islamic boarding Integrated Yapidh Bekasi. Advice to school principals and heads of schools to be more effective cooperation for the improvement SMPIT Yapidh boarding.