

APPENDIX

Main Characters' Profile

Here are the main characters' profiles in the novel Sweet Valley High: Return of the Evil Twin Novel:

1. Nora Chaplle

Nora Chaplle was sixteen-years-old girl from New Hampshire. She was a twin. But since ages two, she had separated by her stepmother, Blance. Actually, she did not know that she had a twin sister. Her mother, Emmeline Carter Chaplle died when she was only two-years-old. Her father, Dan Chaplle married her not long after Emmeline died. Since Blance married with her father, Nora's life changed because Blance did not love her. Since then, Nora became an introvert girl who was able to cover her feeling without noticed by anyone.

She seemed make a barrier within herself, so she did not want to make a good relationship with her stepmother. Actually, her stepmother tried to be nice to her, but Nora refused her kindness because she knew that the love was faked. In Blance's house Nora should follow all the rules by Blance, such as how to dress, how to behave, how to speak and so on.

Then, Blance told the truth to Nora about her sister and she tried to find her. After her discovering about her sister, she became stronger because she thought that part of her soul was complete. Nora thought that before she met Margo, her life seemed useless and she did not have any purpose to continue her life. But since she found her sister, she felt worthy, confidence and valuable.

2. Margo Chaplle

Margo Chaplle is Nora's twin sister. The same with Nora, Margo did not know that she was had a twin sister. She experienced very bad life. Since age two, her step mother threw her away to the institution for abandon children. Margo had a bad attitude since child, for example she ever pulling the cat's fur with illogic reason, she liked to kick and hurt any children around her without reason. Those attitudes that made Blance put her in the institution.

After that Margo was moving from one foster family to another foster family. Her foster families were horrible, there was one foster mother that drunk too much, and also treated her in a bad way, they ever kick Margo until she got to the hospital. Then one day, she found another twin named Elizabeth and Jessica Wakefield. She felt jealous with them because they had a great perfect life, and she wanted to replace their places in the family. And finally, she made a decision to murder them and disposed their body. When she finally met her sister, they planned to revenge them.